High school is a drama, filled with its own comedies and tragedies. Our first day resembles opening night, full of tense moments and "jitters". As we progress, our initial fears disappear. We settle into the routine and look forward to our final performance: senior year. This is our last chance to shine. It is a time to look back on our accomplishments and to think about our future roles. But when it's over, we can't go back because it's all behind CLOSED CURTAINS.

Homecoming spirit soars; king, queen are crowned

School pride was at its highest peak during the five spirit-filled days of Homecoming week.

The winners of the second annual Student Council spirit-dress awards were Senior Luke Morlan and Junior Theresa Lumadue who kicked off the week on 60's and 70's day. The humble winners of Generic Day were Freshman Gina Turner, and Freshman Bob Wilson and an Honorable Mention was earned by teacher Judy Hendricks. Fitting the bill on Reggae Day were Freshman Justin McLain and Senior Tina Walsh. There were no prizes given for Color day or Dress Up day. Winner of the hall decorating contest was the Senior Class theme, Under the Sea.

Thursday at the Coronation Assembly Swing Choir performed Shine Down, Fire Up, and A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square. Lori Wilson and Brian Wasko were crowned as king and queen.

Students are psyched up during pep assembly

Everyone displayed school spirit for the pep assembly Friday. The excitement began as the cheerleaders psyched the crowd up for the game. The seniors won the spirit chain contest and the hall decorating contest with the theme "Under the Sea." Next, the Homecoming floats were presented and the winners were announced. T.J. Thompson and Joanna Timmons won the Railette-sponsored "sexy legs" contest. That's a Plenty was performed by the Prep Swing Choir. Next, the Risky Rails livened up the crowd with their dance to the song Get Up by Van Halen. Coach Tim Miller presented the football players, and the Railettes and cheerleaders joined together in a dance and cheer. The pep assembly came to a close with the chant "Beat Hoover High."

Friday night's game began with much enthusiasm as the Gridders tore through the "Sink Hoover" sign. The Gridders were victorious over the Huskies with a score of 34-20.

The dance, held on Saturday night, topped off the Homecoming festivities. The gym was decorated by Dorian Art and the entertainment was provided by DJ Phil Wilson of KGGO. Pictures were taken by Stover Photography.

Cheerleaders display school's enthusiasm

The cheerleaders gave many hours of their time to liven up the school spirit. This year the cheerleaders were split into two different squads. They could try out for either football or basketball season or both.

They first started out their season with early morning practices. They attended a camp at Iowa State University with 45 other squads. Kim Alber received the title of All-American Cheerleader and traveled to Hawaii to the Aloha Bowl. The cheerleaders also donated much of their time painting signs and planning pep assemblies.

Railettes go South for Team Nationals

Guided by first year sponsor Roberta Nigro and Kari Johnson, captain; Tanya Hird, co-captain; Kristen Stougard, secretary; and Kristin Digranes, treasurer, Railettes excited many at pep assemblies and athletic games. Their first performance was at the Chicken Bowl where they performed Get Up and Dance to the Underground. Railettes danced to Ninja Rap at the Homecoming pep assembly and a number with the cheerleaders.

Railettes qualified to attend Drill Team Nationals in Florida February 14-18. They also went to Florida again in June for a competition with the band.

Band does it again: straight one's at state

Drum Major Todd Fraeken and Field Commanders Rebecca Thompson and Amy Mahood led the 136 member Railsplitter Marching Band. The band is made up of flutes, clarinets, saxophones, trumpets, tubas, horns, drums, a guitar, and bells, and the Railettes marched with their flags.

The band took second place in a march contest at Clarinda and third and fourth places at Valleyfest. They received their fourteenth straight one at state.

They played at Pella, Drake Relays Parade, Adventureland, and Worlds of Fun.

The band also took a special trip to Florida in June. There they marched in the parade at Disney World and visited Sea World and Epcot Center.

Jazz I, Jazz II Concert Band

Jazz Band I and Jazz Band II played in four contests statewide.

Jazz I and II combined to form Pep Band. They added just the right amount of school spirit and excitement to pep assemblies and home basketball games during the year.

Concert Band, directed by Andrew Hanson, performed in two concerts and two contests. Concert Band and Wind Ensemble combined to perform at Commencement.

Show Choir jams, dazzles audiences

The Swing Choir started out the year by performing with some big names in the music business. During the Christmas season, the choir performed at the Civic center with the Lettermen. Shortly afterwards, the group arranged to have Bobby Vee and the Riccochettes perform in Bowen Roundhouse.

With competition at Urbandale and Cedar Rapids, the choir remained busy throughout the year. With all of the practice and competitions, they ended the year with one hot show.

Tracy Brdicko commented, "Swing Choir was a lot of fun this year. We worked with some big names in the music business. It has been a good experience for all of us."

Swing I Band members: Brett Clark, Mike Latessa, Allyson Anderson, Beth Beenken, Nick Lavorato, Robert Sieberns.

Concert, Prep Choirs have memorable year

Prep-Swing members were selected at auditions last spring with the song Let the Sun Shine In. In the fall, work was begun on new music for the Homecoming pep assembly and their part of the Show Choir Fall Show. They were busy during November and December with shows for elementary and middle schools and at various malls downtown. The year ended with the Prep Swing Show.

Concert Choir had three major concerts throughout the year. They started out the year with their fall concert in October. They also performed a Christmas concert in December and a spring concert in April. They sang their annual rendition of America the Beautiful and Battle Hymn of the Republic at commencement. They competed in a Large Group Contest and received high ratings. The choir is directed by Carroll Bennink.

Treble Swing and Varsity I, II Choirs

Varsity Choir I and II performed in three concerts each, and both performed in the Hoover Prep Choir Festival. Both choirs perform selections of music ranging from folk to popular.

Treble Swing Choir (Show Girls) consists of 28 girls who are chosen by audition in the spring. They performed in the Hoover Prep Choir Festival and at the Ruby Van Meter Special School in Des Moines. The girls sing and dance to a wide variety of popular music from the 1940's all the way through to the 1980's

Peer groups help by giving input, support

Conflict Managers were busy in their second year at Lincoln. They helped students to solve conflicts between each other as an alternative to discussing them with adults. The group consisted of students from each grade level.

New Peer Helpers were chosen for second semester by teachers and current Peer Helpers. They learned to be more receptive to the needs of others. They improved listening and interaction techniques during a retreat at Camp Sunnyside. Junior Tricia Baltzley commented on the retreat, "It was a real learning experience. I had a lot of fun, too."

Senior Peer Helpers were able to continue in a new program at Mitchell Elementary. On Mondays, the group was able to work with youth at Mitchell in a peer-mentoring exchange. This opportunity was beneficial to participants from both schools.

Also, a new group, Committee Select, was formed this year to discuss ideas and concerns in the functioning of Lincoln. The students represented a cross-section of the school.

Dorian Art Club brings out the color in Lincoln

Dorian Art Club entered another year by adding color and creativity to the school. The students decorated the gym for Homecoming, the front hall for Christmas, and held the second annual art fair in the spring.

Students met before and after school to complete their decorating projects. They were led by President Traci Teigen, Secretary Dowie Kong, Treasurer Craig Connett, Historian Matt Brown, and Sponsor Donna Yeast. "Students were really cooperative and enthusiastic. We had a good time," commented President Traci Teigen.

Sally Fisher dedicates 13 years to Rails Club

The Rails Club played many important roles to raise spirit at Lincoln. Every month they were involved in a theme project. In September, they decorated the field for Homecoming. In April, they participated in a Walk-a-thon for diabetes.

The Sweetheart Dance was held February 15 in the Bowen Roundhouse. Music was provided by DeCuir Light and Audio. Instead of the traditional red, pink, and white decorations, colors were silver, white, and blue. The theme was Stairway to the Stars.

Selected seniors were invited to attend a luncheon every week with key Des Moines community leaders.

This was Sally Fisher's last year as the sponsor of Rails Club.

Debate, Mock Trial compete successfully

Forensics was led this year by new Director Carole Dickey, assisted by Policy Coaches Cary Stamp and Patty Notch, and Lincoln-Douglas and Congress Coach Steve Coulter.

Officers were Kathryn Miller, president; Anthony Montgomery, vice-president; Rami Dougherty, secretary; Terry Greene, treasurer; and Roy Hughes, public relations.

Student squad captains were Robert Heitman, policy; Sheree Notch, Mock Trial; Justin Virant, congress and extemporaneous; Melissa Voshell, Lincoln-Douglas; Sonja Hansen, original oratory; Cheryl McMullen, humorous interpretation; and Kelly Parker, dramatic interpretation.

The team attended over 15 tournaments and brought home many trophies. They also hosted their own tournament February 7, 8.

Mock Trial teams had a successful season. The two teams were coached by Roberta Nigro, Paige Schlitt, Patty Notch, Linda Schlak, and attorneys Dan Voogt and Greg Brandt. The Mock Trial case for this year was sexual harassment.

Student groups resolve social, racial problems

The Future Generations Club was formed when students became concerned about racial tensions within the school. Future Generations organized a ribbon campaign called "Celebrate Diversity" to show that we recognize that society is made up of people who come from different cultural and racial backgrounds.

Drug Free Athletes started the "Adopt a Hallway" program to keep Lincoln clean. On December 7, they took over Seven Flags Fitness Center. The group also performed skits at Park Avenue and Brody Schools. The Second Annual Sands Volleyball Tournament, sponsored by the Drug Free Athletes was held June 1.

Educational travel provides experience

Two Lincoln students travelled by bus to New York and Washington, D.C. on the U.N. trip over spring break. Students are chosen by the Polk County United Association based on academic achievements, activities, and a one-page essay stating the importance of visiting the United Nations.

Twelve Lincoln students participated in an exchange program with our sister school in Naucalpan, Mexico.

Nick Klinefeldt was able to participate in the Close-Up trip by winning a competition called "Know Your Constitution." Nick travelled to Washington, D.C. to attend workshops about government and current issues.

Yearbook staff finishes with dramatic flourish

The yearbook staff chose Drama as a theme, using theater motifs as division pages. The staff, under the supervision of Editors-in-chief Pam Pearson and Melanie Volden, and Adviser Diane Weir, worked many long hours to bring creative and interesting ideas to life.

The process of putting the yearbook together provided the staff members with an excellent opportunity to learn responsibility and organization. They learned the importance of deadlines. Finishing the yearbook gave everyone a great sense of accomplishment for the work they had done throughout the year.

the RAILSPLITTER

Led by editors-in-chief Terry Greene and Melissa Voshell, the Railsplitter staff completed nine issues.

After the first semester, the staff suffered a loss of News Editor Sheree Notch, but luckily gained two to take her place. These news editors were Chad Ervin and Tom Fanter, the first juniors ever to work for the Railsplitter. Holly Schmidt also joined the staff halfway through the year.

Although the staff was fairly small, they always put out high quality newspapers.

Voshell commented, "This year has been very fulfilling. The staff was made up of a fine group of individuals and it was because of them the paper was such an achievement."

Greene said, "Being a member of the newspaper staff has been very rewarding. We all worked together to make this year's Railsplitter a success."

NHS serves youth, school, community

Twenty-six new members were accepted into NHS in a new eligibility process. Juniors and seniors with a GPA of 3.5 were asked to write an essay describing community services they have provided and explaining why they should be a member. A panel of five reviewed ratings and determined who met the criteria.

NHS participated in the UNICEF drive and collected over $150 dollars to help underprivileged children. They also served lunch at the Bethel Mission, made valentines for senior citizens, and ran a coat check at varsity basketball games, the Sweetheart Dance, and the Bobby Vee Concert.

Student Council enjoys being active, involved

Student Council is a group organized to benefit the school and the community. Members sold spirit ribbons during the football season, organized the Homecoming Week hall decoration contest, and gave prizes to the best-dressed student each day during spirit week. They also planned the annual blood drive and canned food drive, along with a mixer for the students after a basketball game.

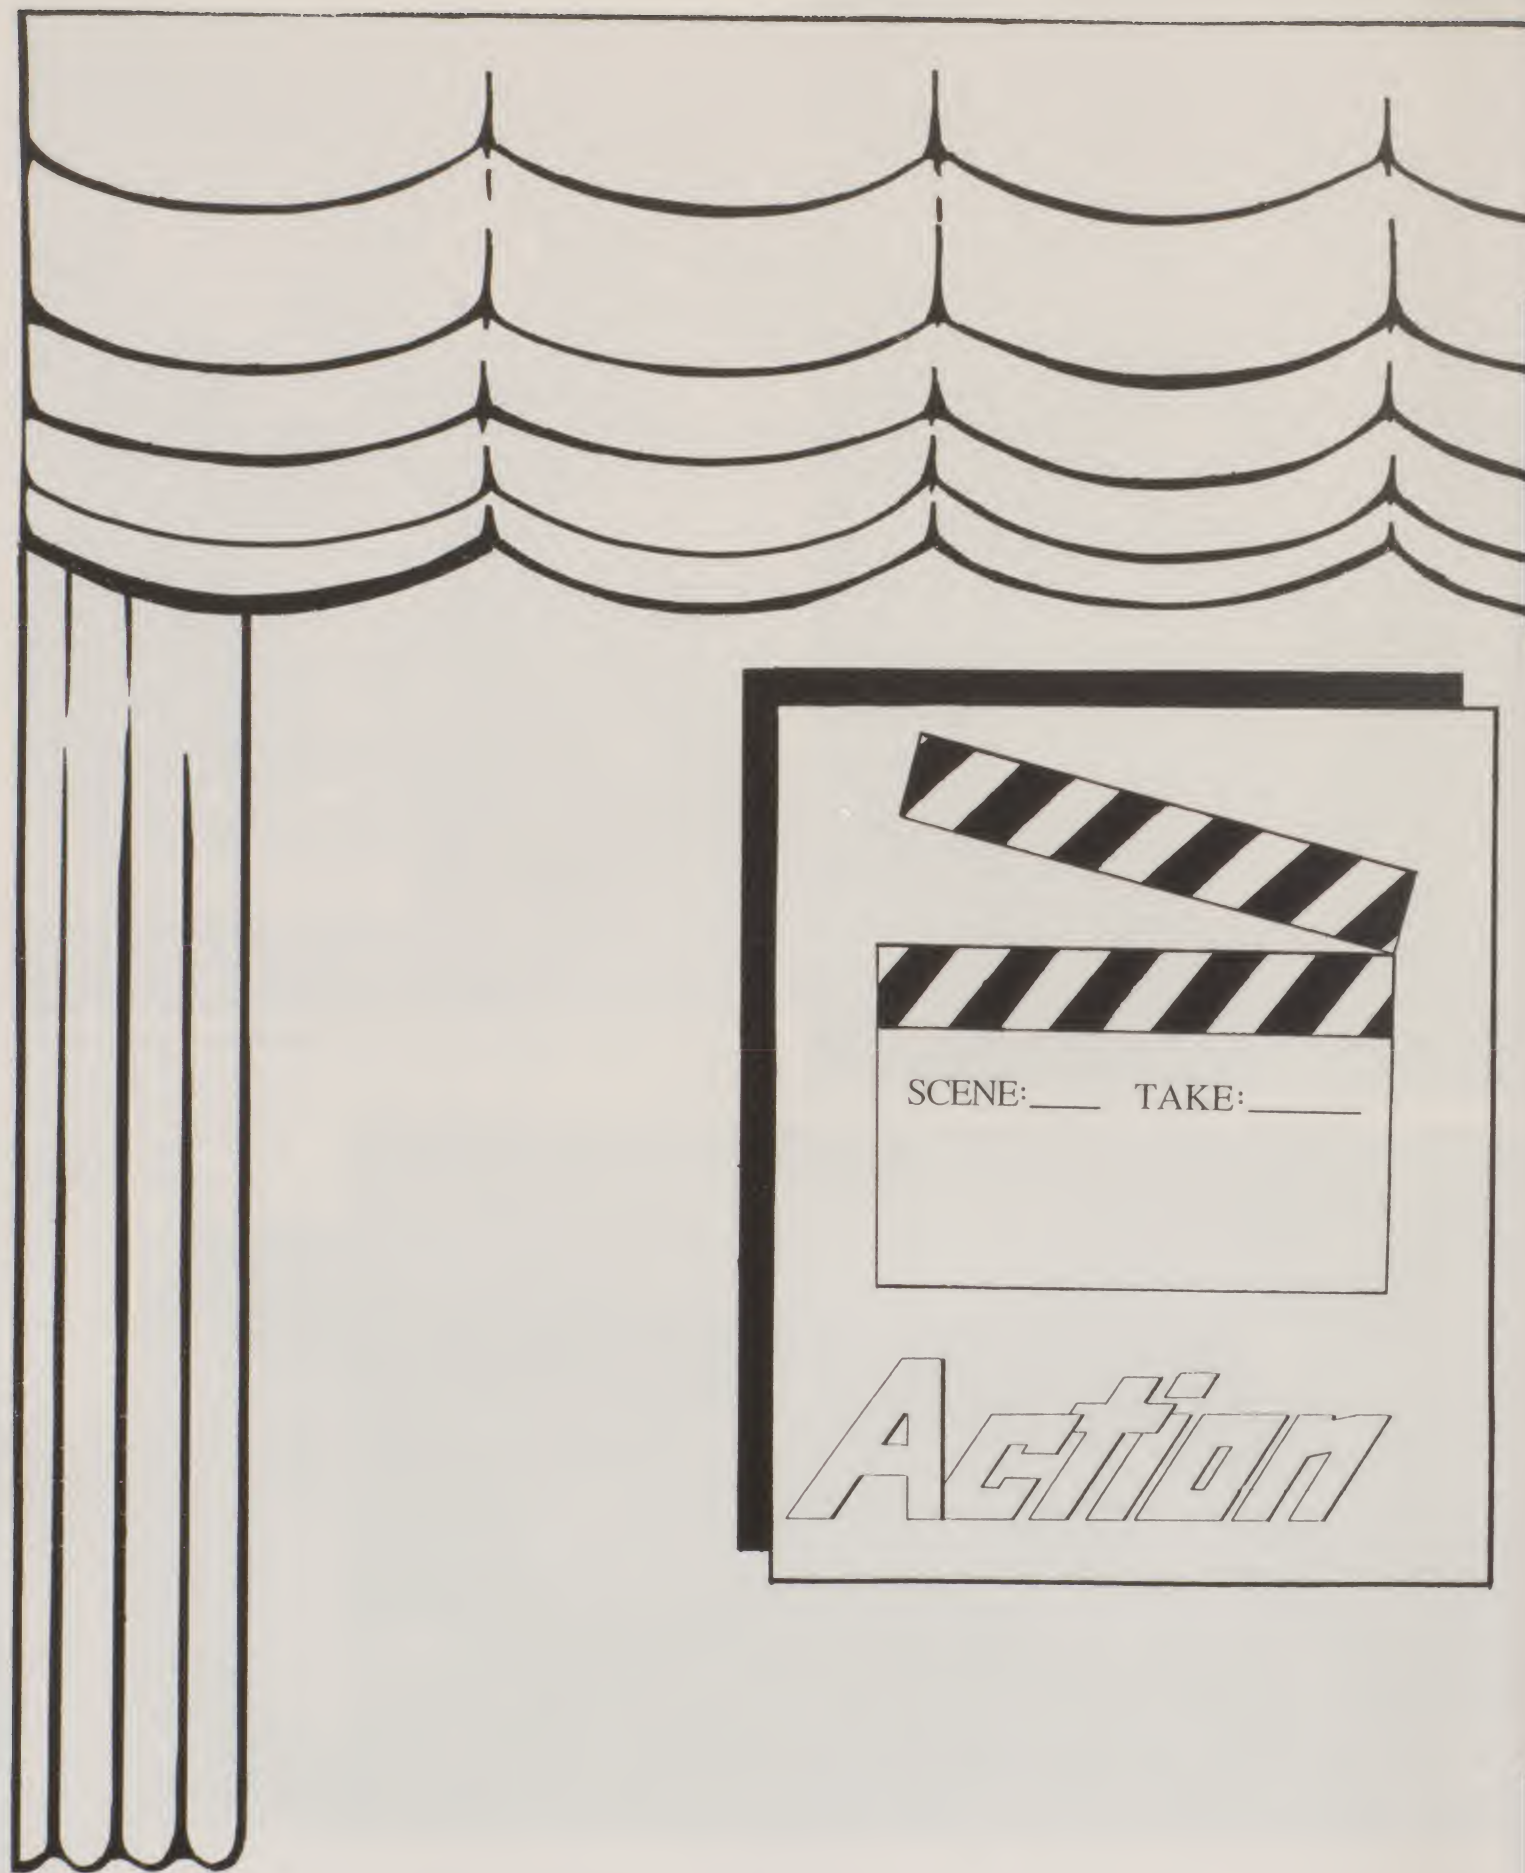

Members also enjoyed a retreat at the beginning of the year at a cabin in Adel. Work was done on revising and updating the constitution. Also, suggestions on improving the school were discussed.

President Sam Teigen commented, "I feel this year Student Council has been very productive. We've accomplished a lot, and we've also had a lot of fun in the process. I hope the Student Councils in years to come will follow in our path."

Softball places three on All-Metro teams

The softball team had a winning season with a record of 24-11. In district play, the Rails lost 1-0 in the first round to get knocked out of the tournament.

Three players were selected for All-Metro teams: Kiersten Pauling and Heidi Hoganson were selected for first team All-Metro, and Nicole Kesselring was selected for third team All-Metro.

Two players were also selected for All-State teams. Kiersten Pauling was selected for second team All-State, and Heidi Hoganson was selected for third team All-State.

Suzanne Perez said, "We beat a lot of top-ranked teams, and with some returning varsity players, I think there is a great chance of going to state next year."

Jody Graham questions a call.

Baggers balance out very difficult season

With only three returning starters, Brad Carter, Jason Villalobos, and Bill Fanter, the Baggers looked for the talented underclassmen to pick up the slack.

Juniors Brian Wasko, Eric Jensen, and Sophomore A.J. Russo joined Senior Chad Prenosil on the starting pitching rotation. Tony Luna added an outstanding season's batting average of .434 to help Lincoln earn a 16-15 record in a very tough season.

During the district tournament, the Rails beat S.E. Polk 3-2 and ended up losing 4-5 in a close game to Creston, number three in state.

Pitcher Eric Jensen said, "Next year's team will be looking for a lot more wins..."

Pauling captures second place at State Meet

Kiersten Pauling ended her outstanding cross country season by capturing second place at the state meet in Ames. She completed each race she ran with a first or second place finish. Rachelle James showed great skill by placing a high fifteenth at Districts.

The girls took first place in the Kindy's classic and third place in the Hoover Invitational. They also scored a first place victory in the Urbandale Classic with Pauling once again taking first in her grade level. Obviously, this young team promises to have a successful future.

The boys' cross country team ended its season at Districts, placing thirteenth out of sixteen teams. Chad Rankin placed thirteenth, missing state by only three places. Coach Dave Bennett was forced to run three freshmen each meet against varsity competition due to the small size of the team. With more experience and endurance, this team will display improvement next year.

Gridders finish up/down season

The Gridders finished their season with a disappointing 4-5 record overall. They took second place in the Metro Conference with a 4-2 record.

The Rails were represented well with Jason Bosiljevac, Brian Wasko, Chad Ross, Nick Loiocono, Ron Prymek, and A.J. Russo all making first team All-Metro.

Second team honors included Chad Boobyer, Kelly Forrester, and Brandon Wark.

In addition to first team All-Metro, Chad Ross was placed on the Class 4-A third team All-State.

Finally, the Gridders ended their season with a bang, stomping North 53-32. Senior Brian Wasko exploded for 192 yards and three touchdowns. Jason Bosiljevac also contributed four touchdowns.

Captain Brian Wasko said, "We started off slow with losses to Valley and Ames. That got us down early in the season and eventually it was hard to get back up for the rest of the season."

Underclass football teams show promise

Lincoln's underclass football teams enjoyed a tough but winning season. Each team finished with a record of five wins and four losses.

Coach Ron Wagner commented on the sophomore team, "I felt we really improved as the season went on. The kids did a super job fighting through the tough games we lost, and they beat some good teams. The highlight of the season was the victory over Dowling for the second year in a row."

The freshman team played exceptionally well, beating all Metro schools except Roosevelt. Coach Dave Bender commented, "The team played well together, and if they stick together, good things will happen."

McVey shows skill, takes sixth at state

The girls' swimming and diving team had a good season, regardless of their record. The Tankers put forth much effort and really pulled together as a team.

The swimmers were led this year by new coach Dan Johnson. Adjusting to a new coach usually takes time, but few problems were encountered. Senior Rhonda Gray said, "It was a little difficult working with a new coach since I had worked with the previous coach for six years."

Coach Johnson said, "I think we had a really good season. We had some very close meets that could have gone either way. With more experience, they would have gone in our favor."

The high point of the season was when senior Debbie McVey captured sixth place in diving at the state meet in Fort Dodge. This was her third consecutive top ten finish. McVey won every dual meet contest and held her title as District Champion. Diving Coach Dick Clark commented, "Debbie had her goals set and worked hard to achieve them, and it paid off. She's been great to work with and I'll miss not having her around next year."

Swimmers dominate; Clark places second

The boys' swim team had an excellent season under the direction of Coach Stan Thompson, Assistant Coach Dan Johnson, and Diving Coach Teresa Beghtol, and Captains Reed Carlson and Brett Clark. With a record of 9-3 in dual meet competition, the Tankers were ready for Districts.

Senior Diver Brett Clark retained his district championship. At State, he finished second. Throughout the season, he continuously broke his own school record and was ranked number one in the state.

Junior Jay Corrigan and Sophomore Kevin Thompson also placed in individual events at State. Corrigan placed fifteenth and broke the school record in the 100-yard backstroke. Thompson also finished fifteenth in the 100-yard breaststroke.

Other State competitors were Seniors Greg Hein and Bryan Hendricks, who along with Corrigan and Junior Matt Smith took 17th place in the 400-yard freestyle relay. Corrigan, Thompson, Smith, and Senior Brandon Donaldson captured 18th place in the 200 medley relay. The 200-yard freestyle relay team consisted of Hein, Thompson, Hendricks and Donaldson. They finished an impressive tenth place.

Wrestling team sends three to compete at State tourney

Captains Trenton Powell and Joe Chandler led the inexperienced wrestlers through a difficult season. The Grapplers had to deal with forfeiting some of their matches due to not having wrestlers at certain weights.

Despite the record of 6-12, the team had many individual victories. At the Harlan Tournament, three Grapplers took first in their weight divisions: Seniors Trenton Powell and Joe Chandler and Junior Brian Whitlatch. Senior Tony Bell was runner-up.

Trenton Powell at 130 pounds, Joe Chandler at 140, and Brian Whitlatch at 189 pounds, qualified for State. Early in the season, Whitlatch was ranked third in the State.

At the State Tournament held at Veterans Auditorium, Chandler and Whitlatch were eliminated the first day. Powell lost to an Ankeny opponent but came back to beat a Harlan wrestler to advance to the second day, eventually losing to a Davenport North opponent.

Rails end outstanding year by breaking many records

Rated fourth in the state, the Rails dominated the American Conference with a 12-0 record in the Metro and 21-2 overall. Two seniors, Cori Hutchison and Tracey Olerich, paced the Rails in their drive to state.

Lincoln set a school record and came within one point of the state record for points in beating Roosevelt, 122-28. The Railsplitters' 57-44 victory against Indianola gave them the conference title, but more goals were in the future.

"Winning the division was one goal we set as a team," said Junior Amanda Simmons, "but we did want to go to state."

Beginning their trip to state, Simmons led the team with 38 points to defeat North, 89-56. An 11-1 burst let the Rails escape, 58-50, in a district game against Urbandale. The season ended with an upsetting loss to Indianola, 57-50. Junior Shelley Delger led all scorers with 11 and Olerich added 10.

First team All-Metro honors went to Tracey Olerich and Junior Kiersten Pauling. Amanda Simmons and Shelley Delger made second team All-Metro. Honorable Mention went to Junior Shelley Bricker.

Cagers surprise CIMC, finishing second place

The boys' basketball team displayed great determination and drive. By surprising many opponents and pulling out several unexpected victories, the Rails dominated the American division of the CIMC conference before winter break. Senior captains Mark Dority and Jim Roach steered the Cagers through a rough road toward the end of the season to salvage an overall record of 9-11.

Several big games against North, Roosevelt, and Southeast Polk proved that the Rails were contenders. During district play the Rails advanced to the second round, finishing the season in a close game against East in double overtime 53-56.

Many of the underclassmen contributed to the team's success, building a solid foundation for next year. Juniors Jason Olerich, Josh Crandall, and Sophomore Ryan Pippett are expected to bring back the most experience.

Tennis

The girls' and boys' tennis teams had a great season. The girls pulled together an inexperienced team and came out on top. Returning letterwinners included co-captains Kathryn Miller and Tina Walsh, Allison Dickson, Cyndi Taylor, Robyn Dickson, Andi Alvord, and Piper Swindler. The girls took over at both the Atlantic and Cedar Rapids tournaments finishing first. Other team victories included North, Newton, Dowling, Hoover, Indianola, East, and SE Polk.

The boys' team endured an up and down season, unable to string together more than a couple of victories at a time. Returning letterwinners included Co-captains Brian Beltrame, Darren Cornwell, and Mark Dority, Brady Essman, and Jason Huizenga. The Netters captured wins against North, Newton, Hoover, Indianola, East, and SE Polk.

Boys, girls track teams fueled by young talent

Boy's track coach Ron Wagner expected a successful season for this year's squad. With many returning letterwinners, the team had a lot of experience. The Cindermen started and ended the season with a lot of strong finishes at meets. The squad showed that speed and talent were their greatest advantage.

The girls' track team, coached by Ed Pilkington, had high expectations going into the season. Even though the team was very young they tried to improve their times at every meet. Coach Bob Corey said, "The freshmen showed great potential and I expect great success next season."

1. Alex Desquiron strides toward the finish line. 2. Working for perfection, Chad Veach and Cori Hill practice hand offs. 3. Kiersten Pauling stretches before a race. 4. Candy Wilson puts in a good performance for her relay team. 5. Shannon Baker reaches for the hand off from Tracey Olerich.

Rainy weather forces many cancellations

Due to the wet season, many meets were canceled. The young girls competed in the Ames Triangular Meet where they suffered a close loss to Ames by 13 strokes. They took third place in the Divisional American Legion.

The top six golfers were Jennifer Anderson, 53; Shelley Bricker, 57; Kristen Shelley, 57; Katie Shelley, 58; Amanda Simmons, 58; and Angie Koll, 66.

Coach Jerry Schartner commented, "I am very pleased with the progress they're making. They keep getting better with each practice and meet."

Academics, activities make for a great year

Thomas R. Drake, in his third year as principal, looked back to the Spring of 1991 and the many successes and achievements for Lincoln High School. Drake said, "The success of our academic team in national competition demonstrated the quality of our academic program. Our team finished 8th in the nation but was the top public school in the competition. Merit scholars, commended students, and an All-State Academic team member were other honors awarded our students. Our athletic and activity programs continue to win honors and recognition. Parent participation continues to grow and has contributed greatly to the Lincoln program.

"Goals for the future include reviewing the North Central Association evaluation, implementing of the Renaissance Program, evaluating the seven-period day, and establishing building goals for the future. We have a great tradition at Lincoln, and by working together, we will continue to build on that tradition."

Juniors and seniors who wish to gain experience in preparing for office occupations are actively involved in the Office Education Program.

Each afternoon these students work in offices throughout the Des Moines business community from three to five hours as typists, secretaries, receptionists, proof operators, and accounting clerks.

Every student strives to achieve recognition at one of four levels: Executive, Diplomat, Stateman, and Ambassador.

OEA officers are Debra Grout, president; Jennifer Kearney, vice-president; Shireen Cosgrove, secretary; Barbara Hartley, historian; Piper Swindler, reporter; and Shayla Venteicher, treasurer.

Eleven cadets travel to JROTC at Hoover

Since Lincoln no longer has an ROTC unit, cadets traveled to Hoover's unit every day. Hoover's unit consisted of over 130 students, 50 of whom came from seven other Des Moines area schools.

ROTC instruction included leadership, first-aid, map reading, communication skills, current events, and history. Extra-curricular activities were Rangers, Color Guard, Rifle Team, Drill Team, Elite Guard, and Dining Out.

Rangers trained at Camp Dodge, and learned such skills as rappelling, use of compasses, and building rope bridges. They also trained on the Leadership Reaction Course. Color Guards presented the American, state, and school flags at assemblies and sporting events. Members formed a saber arch for the Homecoming Court. The best members were selected for a competitive unit called the Elite Guard, which travelled to competitions in and out of state with the Drill Team. Drill Team was basic marching with and without a rifle. The competitive shooting sports team competed in the Central Iowa Junior Air Rifle League and Iowa Games during the summer.

Library gains alarm; Student Center moves

Since 1985, an average of 700-800 books per year were stolen from the library. In order to prevent this, the library installed an alarm system, with the help of Principal Financial.

A special device was placed in each book to set off the alarm if a book had not been through the check out process.

By the end of the school year, approximately 400-500 new books were added. Two former students, Jill and Jane Schneller, donated The Brush of Anguish by Martha Zamora in memory of Lorrie Streiffeler.

After many years, the Student Center was relocated to the cafeteria. It was a relaxing alternative for juniors and seniors instead of a classroom study hall. Student Center made studying a lot more fun by offering a chance to listen to music, have a pop or a candy bar, or talk to friends.

Senior Class activities began with election of officers on November 7. Officers were Lori Wilson, president; Tracy Rhoads, vice-president of banquet; Cameron Campbell, vice-president of prom; Lisa Dondlinger and Joanna Timmons, treasurers; Joe Medina and Jason Walsmith, class representatives.

The Senior Banquet was held at the Park Inn on April 23. The theme was 'All the World is a Stage.' Vice-president Tracy Rhoads opened the program as master of ceremonies. Student speakers for the night were Angela Farrell, Jason Walsmith, Chad Fisher, and exchange student Charlie Odman.

The Senior Prom was held at the Hotel Fort Des Moines May 9. The theme was 'Memories Worth Making,' and the color scheme was blue, purple, and silver, with accents of fuchsia. Music for the evening was provided by a local DJ.

Class Day took place on May 22 in Bowen Roundhouse. Class representative Jason Walsmith led the crowd in the Pledge of Allegiance, Cameron Campbell welcomed the Senior Class, and Lori Wilson gave the traditional president's speech. Joe Medina handed down the class key to Junior Marc Beltrame. Treasurer Joanna Timmons was presented with the plaque. Vice-president Tracy Rhoads explained the ribbon-cutting ceremony and Lisa Dondlinger explained the tradition of handing down the roses. Throughout the Class Day ceremonies, outstanding seniors and the top 3 and 15 per cent were recognized.

The final moment for the graduating class occurred at Commencement at Veterans Memorial Auditorium on May 23. Student speakers were Tina Walsh, Tom Choi, and Leonie Dolch.

Our past few years at Lincoln have been some of our most memorable. All the world is a stage for us now; all the roles are open; all the opportunities are there. For a year, we've been the stars of the show. Now, we've accepted our applause and taken our bows. For us, the Class of 1992, the curtain has closed, but the door to our futures is wide open.

Matthew Davisson

Congratulations! We are confident you can open the doors for the future as you have for the past!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Toby Feters

Congratulations. You're the first to graduate. Three more behind you. You've set a good example. We are very proud of you. Keep up the good work.
Love and Kisses.

Always,
Mom and Dad

Ann Kaster

We know your life has not been easy, but you have met it's challenges in a way that makes us all proud of you.

Love,
Mom and the rest of the family

Greg Hein

Our love, best wishes and congratulations!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Kelly

Sean C. Scott

Where you go, you take yourself.
With you at the helm, it will be a great voyage. We're proud of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Karie Free

Congratulations, Karie. We are proud of you! Stand firm and look for new horizons. You have a bright future ahead of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Ryan Garland

You have filled our hearts with love and given us more pleasure than we imagined possible. May your life be as beautiful as you have made ours.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Todd Methfessel

Congratulations and best wishes for a wonderful future!

We love you,

Matthew James Larson

Congratulations for doing such a fine job, you certainly have earned this graduation.
Keep "HULK"-ing on.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Rebecca

Pamela Jo Pearson

Congratulations!
We're so proud of you.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Stephani May

You've had several accomplishments in your short life but this is the biggest one yet, with many more to follow.
We love you and hope our love and support will help you through your journey.
Love,
Your family

Tracey Olerich

Your face still shines with the promise of a bright future. Hitch your dreams to a star and SHINE ON! Good luck "LEGS"

Love,
Mom and Dad

Kelley Anderson

Congratulations "KILLER". We love you.

Love,

Tiffany Jo Haus
1977-1992

It'll only hurt more....

*Don't look back
when you head for the door.
Cause if you do, It'll only hurt more.*

*Don't stop to explain, don't tell me why.
If you're going to leave,
just tell me goodbye.*

*I love you, I'll miss you,
but I can make it alone.
I want you, I need you,
but I'll hold my own.*

*Cause I can't hold you down, you've got to be free.
And I can't make you love only me.*

*So don't look back, I'll tell you again,
Just kiss me goodbye, if this is the end.*
